BOARD OF HOME MISSIONS.

In this number of the Record it is impossible to make a thoroughly accurate report of the work accomplished during the fiscal year which closed March 31, 1878. But enough is known to assure the friends of Home Missions that the work done and the results achieved are highly encouraging to them and creditable to the missionaries.

The enlargement of our work has been spoken of, from time to time, in these papers. The expense of such enlargement was to be looked for. In the Home Missionary Department we began the year with a balance on hand of $27,794.93, and have received during the year, $258,809.39, and close with a debt of $8,841.35, so that our disbursements for the year have amounted to $295,445.77 or $36,636,28 more than our income. We are confronted then with this fact, namely, that we must raise more money this year than we did last: or undertake less work—or be overwhelmed with debt at the close of the year. We can undertake less, but the fields were never whiter for the harvest, nor the harvests more fruitful. unparalleled tide of immigration into some of the Western States will inevitably create new centres of population and make fresh appeals for the preaching of the Gospel But God never makes a demand on His people without furnishing the ability to comply with it. We certainly have not exhausted the ability of the churches to carry forward the Home Missionary work. Notwithstanding the times are hard—if we will take pains to comprehend the situation and take wise forethought in our churches and our homes, we certainly can raise $40,000 or $50,000 more than we did last year. We need not less than $300,000 this year. We beg of all ministers and all of God's people to let this fact enter into their calculations and keep possession of them this year. And if we all do our duty the work will advance gloriously as it is wont to do.

TERRELL, Kaufman Co., Texas, March 30th, 1878.

The last report I sent you was from Malta Bend, Saline county, Mo., in September, 1877; this one from the "Lone Star State." In presenting you my first quarterly report in connection with my present field of labor, viz., Terrell and Lawrence, I venture to present you a few general thoughts in regard to the field at large, just as they have impressed my mind. 1st. As to the extent of the field. When I first came down into Texas, in November, I determined to spend a month or two in gaining a correct knowledge of its extent, its climate, health, agricultural capacities, and the character of its old and new population. So November and December was spent pretty much in that way, going from point to point so as to gain, as far as possible, accurate information. The first thing that struck me, though I had heard of it in general terms often before, quite often, was its extent of territory as a single State. Taking the map and starting from Texarcana, and going west to El Paso, is within a fraction of one thousand miles. Starting again at Corpus Christi, on the Gulf, and travelling north to the upper line of the Pan Handle, is over another thousand miles. Then comparing it in square miles with other States, it may sound extravagant, yet nevertheless true, viz: the statement that it exceeds in area twelve of the other States of the Union. Take the six New England States and add on to them New York, Pennsylvania, Ohio, Virginia, New Jersey and Delaware, and they make, combined, a total of 267,465 square miles, while Texas itself has an area of 274,376 square miles, or 6,901 square miles more than the twelve States named, the excess being sufficient to make three States more the size of Delaware. The climate, the health, and agricultural advantages of this State are only to be better known to make it the point towards which all Eastern and Northern immigration will The climate varies from semi-tropical to moderately temperate. Snow and ice are seldom seen; the mercury seldom falls more than three or four degrees below freezing point, while the extreme heat of summer is from eighty-five to ninety degrees, but is greatly moderated by fresh, invigorating Gulf breezes, which cool the air and render the heat far less oppressive than in more northern States, and the nights always being remarkably cool, and giving refreshing sleep. The healthfulness of a country depends more upon the altitude than almost any other feature; and most of Texas is especially favored in this respect. And for all diseases of a pulmonary nature, such as consumption, bronchitis, asthma, catarrh; also neuralgia and rheumatism are almost invariably cured, or greatly relieved, and especially in Western and Southwestern Texas is the country in which such diseases are unknown among those who have lived years in the State, and very many I have seen since here whose cases were regarded hopeless North, have been entirely restored. In an agricultural point of view, Northern Texas holds out inducements that will compare favorably with any other State of the Union. Not only can all the cereals be successfully raised, but in every portion of the State cotton-growing is an additional profitable crop. The fact is, Texas is about the best country in the world for a poor man who is not afraid to work, and comes to work. He can accomplish more, with less means, than in any country I ever saw. Northern immigrants have been coming only for the last five years, but

Northern immigrants have been coming only for the last five years, but now what they lost in time they are making up in numbers, rolling in like a flood, increasing with every year. It has been too, a class generally very poor, but with northern industry, and energy, and purpose to secure homes and competence, and whether in city, town, village, or on farm, their energy and push and entire ignoring of all politics, they are breaking down those Southern prejudices with marvelous rapidity. Even Southern immigrants begin to acknowledge their worth as citizens, and I never saw prejudice so rapidly dissolving and fading into the background, as the marked change I note going on since I came. The Northern men, with singular wisdom, never mention the war, or any topic connected with politics.

J. F. B.

Rev. T. Hill, D.D., of Kansas City, also says, under date of April 1, '78: In regard to Texas, the country is so vast and the work so abundant that every time I go there it grows upon my mind, and I long to see many more men in it. If I was a little younger I would go down there myself and expect to see a wondrous change in my lifetime. There are now in Texas about two million people, and for them we have only twenty-two or twenty-three ministers, and the Southern Church only some fifty men in the work of the ministry. There are in Texas some one hundred and sixty counties, and it may be safely stated that there are more places all ready for one, than would average one to a county. There should be an addition of one hundred men to the preaching force in Texas before it would be as well supplied as Kansas now is. We have to-day a larger force in Kansas than that addition to our force in Texas would give us.

DECATUR, Wise Co., Texas, January 4, 1878.

This report has been delayed a few days for the reason that I have been engaged in a very interesting meeting ten miles northwest of this place. Three years ago last August, a party of Indians murdered a mother and two daughters. The father being absent at the only neighbor's house, escaped the scalping knife. The house in which the family was murdered was made of logs, and was about fourteen feet square. This settlement had then two families, now about forty-five; some of them are living in tents, but are busily engaged in building houses for their families. The house in which the unfortunate family lived is now used for a school-house; it was at this place we held our meeting; six persons made a profession of religion. On Christmas Day we organized a church of ten members; two elders were ordained and installed. I expect to supply them with preaching one Sabbath each month. In Decatur we have reason to be encouraged, particularly in the Sunday-school work. The school numbers one hundred. At this place I have delivered a series of lectures on Old Testament answers to prayer, which I believe God has blessed in advancing His cause in this community. We had a Sabbath-school Christmas tree. I received a purse of $24.10 from the members of my congregation. list of the contributors was enclosed in the same envelope, and on counting them I found thirty-nine names. Yours fraternally,

H. A. TUCKER.

CHEEVER, Dickinson Co., Kansas, December 5, 1877.

My field embraces portions of three counties, as follows: Northwest corner of Dickinson, southwest of Clay, and northeast of Ottawa. It is in a very rich agricultural region which is rapidly settling up, but at present (with the exception of the Cheever neighborhood) is thinly populated; the people are poor, but some day in the near future their present straits will be succeeded by prosperity and abundance, as the soil possesses capabilities probably unexcelled by any in the whole world. During the past summer all kinds of crops produced abundantly (with the single exception perhaps of wheat which in our section was a partial failure). The people of the eastern States are beginning to find out the great advantages of this country, and the emigration is setting this way like a tidal wave of the ocean. These new settlers are accustomed to religious privileges in the places where they formerly resided, and value them. The old settlers are as a class still somewhat indifferent, and there are some who are opposed to preaching and contribute nothing by their means or influence to encourage or sustain the missionary. But these last I am pleased to say are few, and are no more outspoken, if they are as much so as they formerly were, from all accounts.

WORK AMONG THE INDIANS.

WALLA WALLA, W. T., Jan. 9, 1878.

You know there were five Sabbaths in last month (December), and that two Sabbaths of the month are spent in Walla Walla, and the other two at Weston. Miss McBeth, of Lapwai, was also aware of this, and she writes: "Cannot you spend the fifth Sabbath with us? I do hope you will come. There is not a more needy or promising field under the care of the Synod of Columbia. There are three Jesuit priests at work among the Nez Perces, and they are at work in earnest—even among my old pupils. not you come, and, with God's help, prevent any more of our people being Therefore, two weeks ago yesterday I left home, and have had a midwinter horseback ride of three hundred and ten miles. I arrived at Lapwai on Saturday of the same week, preached to the Nez Perces on Saturday night, and on Sabbath. Mr. T. M. Boyd has been to Lapwai, and together we are trying to hold the place until we can get a man to fill it. Mr. Stratton writes me that a man in Illinois is coming on to see it, with a view to settling there. Miss McBeth has now a class of thirteen, and she feels much encouraged with it, and says she would be well contented if they only had a white minister to preach regularly to them. I heard two of her old pupils—Archie and Robert—address a prayer-meeting, and if I could judge from expression of countenance, gestures, and from the attention of the audience, I would pronounce them first-class speakers. My audience on Sabbath was large and most attentive. Of course I spoke through an interpreter. A note from Miss McBeth since I left, says two Indians have renounced heathenism. Among the congregation on Sabbath were two of Joseph's sisters, who are exemplary Christian women. Mr. J. B. Montieth, the agent at Lapwai, is much interested in the mission, and s was the Presbyterians will lose the field, unless they send a man soon. Dr. Lowrie should see to it at once; Mr. Boyd and I cannot act as both Home and Foreign missionaries.

SUSTENTATION DEPARTMENT.

This department of the Home Work has been in funds all the year. began the year with a balance on hand of $37,342.97. The balance on hand at the end of the year is $44,879.50. The Board has encouraged many to avail themselves of the provisions of sustentation, but the churches have found it impossible to do so. Hence the fund is larger now than it was a year ago.

APPOINTMENT FOR SUSTENTATION IN MARCH, 1878.

Rev. G. S. J. Browne, Mt. Sterling and Midway, Ohio.

BOARD OF EDUCATION.

The harvest truly is great, but the laborers are few; pray ye therefore the Lord of the harvest, that he would send forth laborers into his harvest.—Luke x. 2.

CORRESPONDENCE WORTH READING.

We publish the following as specimens of the letters the Board is receiving in view of the failure of the May appropriations:

"My Dear Brother:—Your cards have been received and their contents considered. Our boys will go on through the year, even in case the May appropriation should not come. They have been looking for this state of things, and have been planning accordingly. They will, perhaps, close the year in debt a little, and will probably be delayed in their return for the next year.

"The idea of young men, without any backing, working their way through College and Seminary-ten years-is simply ridiculous. And when men talk that way, they do so evidently without thoughtful consideration. What difference does it make, whether a young man receive aid from a Board of Education, or from his father, or from some other individual? He gets help. He does not work his way through. Few indeed are the young men who go through college and seminary unaided from any quarter. Even if they work their way through, it is in all probability because some person or church affords them rare opportunities for doing so, and this, too, out of respect to their poverty and need. Since receiving your card, I have been running over in my mind the young men educated in this College since 1866. They number about twenty. Some of them very choice young men. One, after graduating at Union Seminary, has been retained in New York over the Payson Mission church. Another has gone to Japan. Both are rare men. They were poor, and were aided from the outset by the Board. I could name a number of others of our own boys -scholarly, pious, and earnest Christian workers-too poor to think of starting to school without the backing of the Board. I call to mind now but one of our young men who went through without the aid of the Board. But his mother lived near the College, and boarded and clothed him. And after he was through, he taught in the College two years (being quite young), and earned money enough to take him through the Seminary.

theology here with Dr. Anderson, and lived as a member of the Doctor's family, before the Seminary (now College) was opened. So far as this College and East Tennessee are concerned, facts would drive your objectors to the wall, and nail them there. There is no question about this. I still hope the Board will be sustained. Let it be dropped, and the Church will soon see where it is drifting to. Fraternally, &c., ————."

"Dear Brother:—I am sorry that the outlook is so discouraging, so far as funds are concerned. What is to be the end? Is the Church to abandon the suitable training of young men for the ministry, and surrender learning and its ripe fruits into the hands of the enemies of our faith? It does seem to me that all this chronic fault-finding with the plan of the Board to help educate and train suitable men for the ministry, plays directly into the hands of the enemy. The whole tendency of Modern Revivalism and Lay Evangelization too, is to undervalue thorough and adequate preparation, by study, for the ministerial office. Are not all these things tending to discourage contributions to the Board?

"Dear Dr. Poor:—Yours of the 19th inst. is received. Appropriations came all right. Many, many thanks. If you could send us the half, even the third, of the last appropriation, we shall be able to squeeze through. In regard to the Board of Education, we have stood on the defensive long enough. We must become aggressive. The general charges against beneficiaries are false. I believe that the money which the Church expends on her candidates for the ministry produces larger returns than any money which she spends. There are some failures to be sure. But on the other hand, there are many splendid successes. I am willing to do any thing in my power to aid the good cause. Thank God there is no influence goes out from our Seminary against the Board of Education! Are you coming to see us? I want you to see our much-slandered students. Come and see us. If you can give us any more, let us know as soon as possible. Truly yours,

"Dear Dr. Poor:—Please let me know as early as the middle of April what our students are to expect as to the last appropriation. Dark as the debt makes the prospect, it will, I trust, brighten. The Church cannot, at all events, finally abandon a cause so essential to her welfare.

"Yours truly and fraternally, ———."

"If the contributors to the Board of Education knew how useful and necessary to these youth their gifts are, there would be no difficulty, even in these 'hard times,' to contribute the amount necessary to ensure the fourth quarter's payment. With the exception of one only, whose habits I do not know, and therefore cannot speak of definitely, all the candidates here are extremely economical in their expenditures. The most of them are also young men of a stamp that gives promise of more than usual success in the ministry. Truly yours,

Reports and correspondence relating to the general business of the Board, address to REV. D. W. POOR, D. D.,

BOARD OF FOREIGN MISSIONS.

RECENT INTELLIGENCE.

Notices of Missionaries.—The arrival of Mr. McCauley and Miss Kooser at Bangkok is reported; and of Mrs. Smith, Miss Jones, and Miss Walker, at Gaboon. The Rev. C. De Heer and his wife, and Mrs. Reutlinger, of Corisco, West Africa, have had to leave their station on account of ill health. They expected to spend some months at Basle, before coming to this country on a visit, hoping soon thereafter to return to their work in Africa. The Rev. J. L. Potter, of the Persia Mission, has arrived in this country on a temporary visit at his own charges. Miss Jennie B. Dickson has been appointed as a missionary to the Dakoṭas. Her station will be at the Yankton Agency. Miss Dickson is a member of the Bethesda Presbyterian church, Rev. Dr. Eva, pastor, Philadelphia. Farewell religious services, very largely attended, and of the warmest sympathy, were held in the church before she set out on her journey.

Added to the Church.—Among the Seminoles, one; in Los Angeles, nine Chinese during the year; at Petchaburi, two; at Ambala, one; at San Louis Potosi, four.

AFRICAN LICENTIATE PREACHER.—A young man of much promise—of the Kombe tribe—was licensed to preach by the Presbytery at Gaboon. He was appointed to supply the church of Benita. See interesting particulars in Miss Nassau's letter on another page.

The Famine in China continues—one of the most terrible ever known in history. Many millions of people are in deep distress for want of food. Multitudes have perished, and great numbers will perish in the time that must pass away before relief can be obtained from ordinary sources. Our missionaries, particularly at Chenanfu, in Shantung, and also at Chefoo and Tungchow, in the same province, are engaged in giving relief to famishing men, women and children, according to the means placed at their disposal. Foreigners in China have given most liberal donations; and the Chinese Government is endeavoring to provide relief, but there is still great need of help. Any funds sent to the care of Messrs. Olyphant & Co., 104 Wall street, New York, or to the Treasurer of the Board, will be forwarded without delay.

MISSION WORK OF BOARDS AND PRESBYTERIES.

Two opinions, strongly expressed, have appeared in print, urging that missions to the Indians and to the Chinese in this country should be taken out of the charge of the Foreign Board. Both these opinions rest somewhat on one idea,—the geographical situation; but they do not agree as to further steps. One advocates the transfer of these missions to the Presbyteries; the other to the Home Board.

So far as the geographical aspect of the case is concerned, it is well to remember that not one of the Boards was organized on a merely geographical basis, but each was constituted for a specific part of the Church's work; that is, the nature of the work to be done was the reason of each Board's existence. We have a certain number of Domestic Boards because it was considered expedient to organize the great Home work of the Church under this subdivision of its agency. We have a Foreign Board for the alien work of the Church—for work among nations and tribes who, in language and religion as well as in social life and political status, are by no means a part of our people. Most of them live across the seas, but through the ordering of Providence are within our reach. Some of them were in this country before our fathers came to it, the aborigines. Others for nearly thirty years have been here as visitors, coming and going, not expecting to stay,—the Chinese. We need cite no other proof that the Church regarded both these classes as within the province of its Foreign Board than is shown by the fact, that they have been in its charge for more than forty years in the case of the Indians, and ever since their arrival in the case of the Chinese. The same view of Indian work was taken formerly by those of our churches then supporting the American Board. All this was so not for reasons of geography,—the old Seneca mission in the State of New York was always within easy reach, geographically; but it was because of the work to be done and the methods thereof, essentially the same as in other missions to the heathen. With the divine blessing the result of such work will be, in the case of the Indians, their becoming Christians, then civilized, and then in full degree our fellow-citizens and equally sharers of the blessings of all our Domestic Boards. In the case of the Chinese, they will return to their own country prepared to bless their people with gospel truth and Christian life and labor.

So far as the Presbyterial aspect of the case is concerned, there is no difficulty. The Boards are all simply Standing or Permanent Committees of the General Assembly, entitled to exercise no ecclesiastical powers whatever, agencies responsible to the Church practically through its public opinion and formally through its highest Court, administrative bodies through whose acts the stronger presbyteries may help the weaker, and our Christian people may share in the common work of missions, either in whole or in part according to their own judgment. The Presbyteries, if they have the men and the means at command, are free to take the direct charge of all evangelizing labors in their own bounds especially; or they may avail themselves of the agency of the Boards, each for the work for which it was appointed. And this is commonly done, without their being open to the charge of thereby abandoning their proper work. Nor, on the other hand, can any one think that a Presbytery aided by any of the Boards thereby becomes a "Foreign Missions Presbytery," or a "Home Missions Presbytery," or a "Church Erection Presbytery." Such titles of description find no place in our Church nomenclature. If unhappily the proceedings of a Board should not prove satisfactory to a Presbytery what then? First, friendly conference between them. This failing, then second, respectful reference to the General Assembly. Without this it ought not to be considered "in order" for the Presbytery to apply to another Board. Much less would it be gracious to exclude a Board empowered to seek the salvation of unevangelized peoples within its bounds, whom its own members cannot reach. In all cases Christian considerateness of action ought to secure a good understanding. It may serve as an example of some of the preceding remarks, if we refer to a mission no longer maintained. Years ago, from 1849 to 1857, the late O. S. Foreign Board supported missionaries among the Jews in three of our Atlantic cities, with the full concurrence of the several Presbyteries. This was done on the ground that work for this people, so long aliens from their true religious home, required qualifications and methods not commonly in use for other people. The history of this mission is instructive, but we may not now dwell upon it; its labors were not in vain—as an example, the most distinguished missionary of another denomination was brought to his Christian profession through its agency; but our reference to it here is to show the working of foreign plans within presbyteries at home, and to state, that such thorough upholders of Presbytery as the late Drs. Janeway, Phillips, McElroy, Spring, Potts, J. W. Alexander, and Krebs, besides laymen of equal eminence, were then members of the Board and supporters of this Jewish mission. It was, however, a discouraging work, and since it was relinquished by the Board, not for theoretical but for practical reasons, nothing in the form of organized effort has been done by our body for this ancient people.

We are not aiming to give a full statement of the subject, and only add that some light is thrown upon it by experience. This was referred to in our last issue, page 113. We may also refer to the experience of two of our largest denominations, which conduct their Indian mission work through their home agencies. In one case the appropriation has fallen to $3,380 for this year; in the other, it was only about $5,000 last year, or less than half the amount expended through its foreign agency in 1864, the year before this agency closed its work for the Indians. In neither case is detailed information now given in the Annual Reports of their Indian missions, a great change from the usage of one of these bodies, when this work was in the charge of its foreign Board. In neither case was there any lack of ability, energy, &c.; but this alien work is very difficult work, and in these respected denominations it seems to have been overshadowed by their great home work. Indeed it is just here that we feel most solicitude as to the ultimate success of the proposed change.

We trust this subject will receive earnest consideration at the approaching meeting of the General Assembly. Several things may be done. 1. Let matters drift on, no action being taken. 2. Transfer one or both the Indian and Chinese work to the Home Board. 3. Authorize this Board to enter the Indian and the Chinese fields, without displacing the Foreign Board. 4. Leave both fields to the Foreign Board, as they have been for so many years. Or 5, as to the Indians, appoint a Commission, or small Board, of say five members, having its seat of operations in Washington City, for several and weighty reasons. One of the denominations has adopted the plan of working through an Indian Commission, with a great increase of interest, liberality, and missionary labor. Whatever action may be taken by the General Assembly will certainly be cordially accepted by all parties. The desire of all, no doubt, is that such measures shall be adopted as will best advance the kingdom of our Lord and Saviour, Jesus Christ.

MISSION FIELDS.—II.

As was mentioned last month, the general purpose of these papers is to remind our readers that our Church is highly favored in our Mission Fields, especially because led to enter them by Providence. We aim at no particular order in referring to them, and now proceed to mention those which are marked by a common feature of great interest.

3. Transferred Missions. Three of the missions included in our former article are transferred missions—the Seneca and Chippewa, and the Gaboon, now united with the Corisco Mission. Besides these are the missions in Syria and Persia, and the greater part of the work in Peking—all transferred from the American Board; and the mission in Chili, connected with the Christian Union. These missions were all supported by the late N. S. part of our body, in connection with Christians of other denominations; and it was reasonable and friendly action which transferred a part of their former work to the Board of their Church after Re-union. Thereby their associates in the support of missions were not left burdened with too large a share of what had been previously joint work; and thereby their relations to the missionary brethren in these missions, most of whom were of the same faith and order with themselves, were happily maintained.

We need only speak here of the marked ordering of Divine Providence by which they are now the common heritage of our Church. They are not only cherished by their former patrons, but they are welcomed by many new friends; and so in turn are the missions supported by the former O. S. body. Nothing in the great event of Re-union was of greater interest than this union in missionary relations of the Church's representatives amongst many alien tribes and peoples. Is it not a token of good to the Church here, and to the kingdom of Christ everywhere, that so many missions are now by the appointment of Providence associated in their labors for the salvation of the unevangelized? But we often fear, that the responsibility of enlarged action in view thereof has not yet been sufficiently considered. Reserving notices of these transferred missions in their respective fields for future remarks, and compelled to study brevity, we next notice—

4. The Missions in China and to the Chinese in this country. It was to be expected that so great a field of missionary labor as China would receive earnest consideration by Missionary Boards. For long years it was inaccessible, to a great degree; then several Societies, ours among them, began evangelizing work among the Chinese emigrants, in the countries near China proper. The first missionaries of the Board went to Singapore in 1838. Soon afterwards war, so often the forerunner of the kingdom of peace, opened certain doors into China itself. So much was utterly wrong in the war by a Christian power to force the curse of traffic in opium upon this heathen people, against the earnest remonstrance of the emperor, that the sympathies of the churches became deeply moved in behalf of the Chinese; and when the way was prepared by over-ruling Providence, the men and the means of their support were forthcoming. In 1843 stations were occupied at several of the large cities on or near the coast, and some of our ablest and best missionaries found there the great work of their lives. work has taken deeper root, and grown steadily from 1843 to the present day. One of its triumphs was the method of printing Chinese characters with divisible metallic type, now in use. The removal by death of several laborers seemed to chasten but not discourage the friends of Chinese missions; the death by violence of the son of the then senior Secretary of the Board was remarkably ordered, so as to increase a tender interest in the work to which his life was devoted. The work of the mission has greatly advanced, and its prosperous state calls for devout thanksgiving and also for increased effort.

The mission to the Chinese in our country was also the child of Providence. It was in fact but a part of the work at Canton, engaged in by missionaries of the Board from China, pursued in the use of the same methods, and having its greatest usefulness in the return of Chinese converts to their own country, prepared to make the gospel known to their people. It was a special ordering of Providence that our first minister in the new city, a gentleman still resident in San Francisco, should have been led to take a deep interest in these Chinese strangers, and in his church efforts were commenced for their instruction. It was also a kind and gracious disposal of events that led to the appointment of a returned missionary from Canton, to carry on efficient and successful efforts for the conversion of these visitors, efforts which have been steadily prosecuted to the present time.

We may here briefly notice the remarks of a critic of the Board, who alleges in repeated paragraphs that the vast population of China, in provinces as yet unreached, should lead the Board to withdraw its missionaries from our country and send them to these provinces. But 1. This argument proves too much; all the ministers of our Church might be withdrawn from their present fields for the same reason and sent to China. Even then our five thousand ministers would be no great supply for the one hundred and twenty-five million in these provinces. 2. A first principle is apparently overlooked. The evangelization of any people must be effected, so far as human instrumentality is concerned, chiefly by natives of the country. The foreign laborers make it their great object to train up such native evangelists. This work is in good progress in China. More foreign laborers are greatly needed, and must be sent, though not at the expense of other fields; but the missionaries of all denominations are endeavoring to find and to train native Christians for the work. There are now in China connected with our missions, eighty-eight native missionaries of various grades, thirteen of them ordained ministers; fifteen years ago there were but sixteen, none of them ordained; others were then, and others are still under educational training. The increase hereafter, let us hope, will be in a geometrical ratio. 3. Even more complete is the reply, that such a change of laborers would not accord with the leadings of Providence towards our Church and its Missions.

NEZ PERCE SCHOOL.

Writing under date of February 2d, Miss McBeth gives interesting particulars of her school at Lapwai. Two of the four Licentiate Preachers, it will be noticed, are still under her instruction. All four received such Christian knowledge and training from her that they were deemed worthy of licensure to preach by the Presbytery, and we trust they will be most useful laborers for Christ among their own people and other Indian tribes.

It was about the 1st of November when my school began. The class filled up rapidly until we had twelve regular pupils—Indian men—all who could find places to abide in here. (The Lapwai settlement is small. The most of my pupils are from a distance.) We could have had more pupils, and would have taken more, only there was no house-room for them. Besides these twelve—who rarely miss a day from the school-room—the old Elder, Levi, attended when he could. Another began, but had to stop on account of his wife's illness. The names of my pupils are: Robert Williams, Archie Lawyer, Enoch Pond, Silas Whitman, Peter Lindsley, Moses Monteith, Joseph Kentuck, James Hayes, Abraham Brookes, Noah Bredell, William Wheeler, James Grant. The first eight belong to Kamiah. R. Williams and A. Lawyer belong to my old class, and were licensed to preach by the Presbytery of Oregon, last spring. They were very anxious to continue their studies, and I let them come. They preach on Sabbath, and also on week nights, often, and, I think they are improving, and doing a good work among their people. Having them—with the others—makes my work more complicated, but I am very willing to teach them, for the sake of the benefit to the people, through them. They continue their study of the Bible—first in English, then translate, verbally, into the Nez Perce. They are studying the 'Confession of Faith and Larger Catechism,' Grammar, both of the English and Nez Perce languages, and other helps for their work, and for general knowledge. Of course we translate, verbally, the 'Confession of Faith,' &c., and we have begun putting portions of it into a more permanent form, for the use of the Church here.

My other pupils read, in English, and translate, verbally, the Bible three days of the week. The most of them began to read in English with me—some of them I had to teach the Alphabet. Some of them belonged to the class I was teaching in Kamiah, when the war broke it up. Levi had been for some years in the Indian boarding-schools. Two days of the week are for Spelling, Writing, Geography, and Arithmetic. They are eager students, and learn rapidly. Music—of which they are passionately fond—for which some of them have a natural talent, is an 'aside,' and not counted as a study; it usually closes the day's study. My aim has been, and is, to fit them to learn to sing and play new hymn tunes, for themselves, when they are without a white teacher. For this purpose (and to save my own lungs) I bought an organ for them in Portland, two years ago, and expect to leave it with them.

All—save three, of my pupils are married men, and have to work for their families. So, I have them come to me as soon as it is light enough to read, and we study five or six hours without intermission, until 1, P. M., or after. That gives them an unbroken part of the afternoon for their home work. The most of my class are from the 'pick' of the tribe. If God should spare, and bless us, we hope there are among them those who will be good teachers both of the Gospel, and of its attendant civilization—perhaps to more tribes than their own. More than one invitation has come to the native preachers from neighboring tribes. While a knowledge of the Bible and of books has been, and is, our chief aim, yet we try, and always have tried, in every way in our power, to advance their civilization. (For instance, this A. M., Saturday, we taught one of the class how to make candles. Yesterday, P. M., we taught the wife of one how to starch and iron her husband's collars, which we had taught her how to make). I could write pages about 'my class,' which I think would interest—but that must be reserved for another letter."

We learn from Miss McBeth, and from other sources, the great need of an ordained minister for the Nez Perces. Besides his work for this tribe, particularly in aiding to organize churches and to promote the settlement of native licentiates and their general usefulness when ordained, he could also extend his own and their influence over other tribes. The services of such a missionary have been urgently needed for several years, and were never more needed than at present, though with the co-operation of these licensed preachers, the work now possesses special features of encouragement.

A KOMBE LICENTIATE PREACHER.

For several years Miss Nassau has had a class of native young men at Benita, West Africa, under her instruction and training. One of them was lately licensed to preach by the Presbytery. Two others are still candidates for the ministry. In this instance, as in that of the Nez Perce licentiates, we see the important work which our missionary women are sometimes called to perform. And it gives us a pleasing idea of the compass and flexibility of our church system, that their faithful labors, prosecuted under the eye of presbytery and then receiving its official seal of licensure after due examination, should result in such hopeful promise of usefulness.

We take the following extracts from Miss Nassau's letter of February 1st:

"I wish to tell you of the examination before Presbytery and the licensing of one of our three candidates, Frank Sherrerd Myongo. . . . He has been a good student in every sense of the word, he loves the pursuit of knowledge, is prompt, pleasant, obedient, and enthusiastic, especially in biblical study. Friends at home can scarcely appreciate the miracle it is when a young man, surrounded by his own people, pursues steadily for years a course of study. . . . There seemed such urgent need for one of the three young men, and as Frank was further advanced in studies as well as in the strong and Christian development of his character, he was advised to prepare the usual pieces for license—the sermon, lecture, and critical exercise. He worked faithfully in these while at Ogovê and accompanied Dr. Nassau and myself to Gaboon to attend the Presbytery. . . . The meeting of Presbytery took place on Monday, P. M., January 7th. After some other business the Presbytery called for the candidate, Frank Sherrerd Myongo. First he was required to read his Sermon, which he did clearly and with earnestness, then the Critical Exercise, and last, the Popular Lecture. His manner was self-possessed and earnest throughout, and the criticisms of the gentlemen who examined these pieces were most gratifying; they commended them most highly as to matter, manner of treatment, use of English, orthography, and chirography. It was then proposed to examine him on Theology, the Sacraments, and Church Government. Though not expecting to be called on at that time, he stood well. The Presbytery were satisfied, and they proceeded to license him. Dear ———! I had only one thought at that hour, my noble boy had gained the goal his young heart and mine had longed, and labored, and prayed for, during six long years. With hearts too full for words he took my hand, and we sought the quiet room where two hours before we had knelt and asked one thing—strength for the trial. Said he, 'Miss Bella! God answers prayer.'

Frank Sherrerd Myongo was appointed on the following day, stated supply of the church at Benita, from which Rev. Ibia J. Ikenge was withdrawn to take Elongo, vacated by Mr. De Heer. The day after the meeting I left Gaboon, and in company with the Kombe young men and Frank, who had been at Ogovè we started in the cutter for Benita. . . . The King called on me soon after my arrival and expressed his desire to carry out the wishes of the missionaries, and for that reason he would call all the people to have them hear, and then he would require them to do as we asked. At the time appointed the meeting was held, and I wish friends at home could have seen the really dignified and noble-looking company of about thirty principal men whom I met when I was summoned into the reception-room of the mission-house. In no other part of the united Gaboon and Corisco mission has such a sight been witnessed; a company of natives, headed by one of their own number as King, not in name only, but reality, coming at their own call to the missionaries to know in what way they desired to benefit the tribe, in order that the natives might follow out and aid them. I have not time to tell what they said. But please, when you think of Benita, remember the encouragement: 1st. Their minister is of their own tribe. 2d. Their King is of their own tribe. We need no English or French aid. The King does not profess to be a Christian, but he acts as one; he said he would still pray that a white missionary gentleman would come. He said Miss Dewsnap must be strong and he would help her and Mrs. Menkel in everything. Remember Benita."

MISSION WORK AT GABOON, WEST AFRICA, LAST YEAR.

Report of the Baraka Station for the year 1878.

Our work has been prosecuted at this station during the past year, much as in former years, but with a smaller number of laborers. Early in the year Mr. and Mrs. Reading left for the United States, and Miss Dewsnap went to Benita to assist Miss Nassau, who was left alone at that distant station when Miss Jones returned to the United States. In August she returned, and during the remainder of the year, assisted Mrs. Bushnell in the girls' school. Our health, though not vigorous, has been such as to enable us to continue our labors with but slight interruptions, and with ordinary success. The Sabbath congregations have never been larger, or more attentive. In order to reach the mixed audiences, the services have been both in English and Mpongwe.

The Sabbath-school has been larger than in any previous year, numbering nearly two hundred pupils—including a class of adult women, who have been much interested in learning the Catechism and portions of Scripture. The young men's Bible class has completed, in course, the study of the whole Bible, which was commenced several years since. The weekly lectures and prayer-meetings at Baraka, and in the towns, have been well sustained. The native Bible woman has continued her visits to the people in the towns and on the plantations, with a good degree of zeal and success. About fifty boys have been instructed in the Boys' Boarding School, and about sixty pupils in the girls' school, including a few day scholars in both schools. The teaching has been principally done by native teachers, under our special supervision. These teachers, and a few of the more advanced pupils, have been instructed in Biblical Science, Theology, Church History, &c.. during the recesses between the sessions of the schools, and evenings, with no special religious interest.

The church has been in a general healthy state, and five additions—all adult heads of families—have been added to its number of members. One, the eldest, and perhaps the most devoted of its members—the daughter of a former king—has died in the faith of Jesus, leaving the present number on the roll, 97. The contributions of the church and congregation—though less than the former year—have been $270. Our relations with the French authorities continue to be most satisfactory.

We would make special mention of the unvarying kindness of the commandant and the doctors, who are always ready to come at our request, and never make any charges for their skillful services. The commandant and several of his officers visited our schools, and expressed much pleasure at what they saw and heard. The Admiral, during his last visit at Gaboon, desired to learn more particulars respecting our work, and a brief statement of our past and present educational work has been prepared and sent to him.

We have made considerable progress in the important work of completing the translation of the Bible into the Mpongwe language. Sixteen new hymns have been translated and printed, besides a first Book, in Mpongwe. The second Book, and also the Shorter Catechism, are ready for the press. The young man we sent to Calabar, to learn to print, has returned and entered upon his work with good prospects of success.

We close the year with thanksgiving, and enter upon the new year with renewed courage. We are thankful for the reinforcement sent us, and pray for more, for the harvest is plenteous and increasing in vastness. But more than all do we need the outpouring of the Holy Spirit in Pentecostal power; for which we wait and pray. Yours, fraternally, Gaboon, January 11, 1878.

ALBERT BUSHNELL.

NEW MEXICO INDIANS.

The Want of Means.

Our work is too often hindered for want of pecuniary means. Sometimes a new missionary cannot be sent out. Sometimes a promising school cannot be opened. Sometimes a good native laborer cannot be taken on the list of missionaries. Sometimes a needed chapel or dwelling-house cannot be erected. These are examples. Such cases are brought to the attention of the Church, by letters from the missionaries, by the missionary periodicals, by appeals from the Board, &c.; and often the want is supplied, sometimes in remarkable ways; but if not supplied, these cases are kept in view, and it is hoped that they can be overtaken after awhile. Sometimes the Board is censured for not engaging to provide for them, funds or no funds. But to do so without funds, or the reasonable prospect of receiving them, would result in embarrassment from debt, loss of confidence, and disaster all along the line of the Missions. In the work of our Missions to the Indians, similar cases have occurred—particularly of late in the distant south-west. In New Mexico and Arziona, the way seemed to be open for stationing missionaries among the Navajoes, Pueblos, and other tribes. But two difficulties stood in the way. First, that of finding men who would engage in the service as a work for life, and who could learn the vernacular speech of the Indians. For teaching, partly at the expense of government funds, these conditions, though desirable, could not be insisted on; but for preaching they were deemed of great moment. The second difficulty was in the want of funds—the journey and the support of missionaries involving considerable expense. The Board, however, sent a few laborers, both ministers and teachers, to New Mexico, and expended over $13,000 in the support of missionary work in that territory, chiefly for the Indians. It was still making efforts to secure laborers, when its plans were arrested. We have no wish to enter here into further details, nor to make objections to the work being taken in hand by other agencies. We shall be glad and thankful to see these tribes brought to the knowledge of the Saviour by such laborers as may be sent to them. But we think this statement of the case, not to advert to other efforts and influences exerted for the welfare of these Indians, may well prevent unfriendly criticism of the course pursued by the Board.

BOARD OF PUBLICATION.

The press of the Board is not idle. Whilst throwing out for public reading editions of its older works, it also sends forth new volumes and tracts, uttering the fresh thoughts of to-day on topics of present interest. The following publications have been added to those recently announced:—

1184. Jennie Prindle's Home. By the author of "Paul Brewster and Son," "The Broken Fuchsia," &c. 18mo. Two Illustrations. Price, 40 cents.

A bright narrative, telling of the reform of an ill-ordered household through the agency of two little girls.

1185. Outside the Gate. By the author of "A Basket of Barley Loaves," "Sacramental Sabbaths," &c. 16mo. Four Illustrations. Price, $1.25.

This is a well written book, clear and sprightly in style, showing by the story of the experiences of a bright colored boy, how to enter in at the gate.

1186. Silas Gower's Daughters. By Annette Lucille Noble. Author of "Under Shelter," "St. Augustine's Ladder," &c., &c. 16mo. Four Illustrations. Price, $1.25.

In "Silas Gower's Daughters" we have an illustration of the little leaven leavening the lump. Into a rough, selfish home comes the influence of the Gospel, first touching a sensitive girl and then reaching, one after another, every member of the household.

1187. Rambles Among Insects. By the Rev. Samuel Findley, D.D., Corresponding Member of the American Entomological Society. Seventy Illustrations. 16mo. Price, $1.25.

This volume will open a new world to readers old as well as young. The author introduces them to near neighbors, of whose wonderful lives and deeds they now have little idea. Whilst popularizing his theme so as to interest the young, he has sought scientific accuracy in every statement, and for this purpose has had his work carefully examined by an eminent Entomologist. Lessons of thrift, courage, forethought, and piety, are ingeniously drawn from the habits of insects and applied with pertinency. It is an excellent thing thus to send out our youth, with opened eyes, into the marvels of creation.

1188. The New Life not the Higher Life; or, the Believer's Holiness Personal and Progressive. By the Rev. A. W. Pitzer, D.D., Author of "Ecce Deus Homo," "Christ the Teacher of Men," &c. 18mo. Price, 30 cents.

Dr. Pitzer discusses his topic—the all-important one of growth in holiness—with acuteness, force, and evangelical warmth, and from a purely scriptural standpoint. He shows that the Christian life delineated in the Bible is a new life to sinful man, and a life of progress in personal holiness, to be consummated in perfect conformity to the image of Christ. The book will guide whilst it stimulates believers in their efforts after likeness to the Master.

18mo. TRACTS.

No. 180. Whose Children Should be Baptized? By the Rev. A. A. Hodge, D.D. Price, three cents.

The question is discussed and answered by Dr. Hodge, his conclusion being that ordinarily the right of having their children baptized belongs to the communing members of the church only.

No. 181. The Doubter. By the Rev. John R. Thompson, D.D. 8 pp.

By means of a conversation with a "doubting" Christian it points out the way of deliverance from doubts.

No. 182. The Gospels Harmonized. Price, three cents.

A synopsis of the harmonized contents of the four Gospels, following Dr. Edward Robinson, for the assistance of Bible students.

No. 183. The Assurance of Hope. By the Rev. James M. Crowell, D.D. Price, 5 cents.

A tract that will carry comfort to many a child of God by clearing away misconceptions, showing the path to a glad assurance of hope, and inviting to it.

No. 184. Denominational Education. By the Rev. George L. Spinning.

It enforces the duty of training our young people in an intelligent understanding of the Scriptural doctrines and polity of the Presbyterian Church, so that they shall love to maintain and propagate them.

JONATHAN OGDEN, Treasurer.

BOARD OF RELIEF FOR DISABLED MINISTERS, AND THE WIDOWS AND ORPHANS OF DECEASED MINISTERS.

"When the ear heard me then it blessed me; and when the eye saw me it gave witness to me: because I delivered the poor that cried, and the fatherless, and him that had none to help him. The blessing of him that was ready to perish came upon me: and I caused the widow's heart to sing for joy. I put on righteousness and it clothed me: my judgment was as a robe and diadem. I was eyes to the blind, and feet was I to the lame, I was a father to the poor: and the Cause which I knew not I searched out."

The Board of Relief has exhausted the treasury in making the last payments. Applications are coming in, and among them five more NEW CASES.

Will not the non-contributing churches come to the rescue?

LINCOLN UNIVERSITY,

CHESTER COUNTY, PENNA.

1.—Its orthodoxy is guaranteed by the General Assembly of the Presbyterian Church.

2.—Its Collegiate and Theological courses are complete; arranged to meet the necessities of the colored race; designed for the training of Ministers, Missionaries, and School Teachers for effective work here and in Africa.

3.—Its campus and public buildings, valued at $100.000, will accommodate 200 Students and five Professors. Its invested funds afford an income of about $5.000, which must be supplemented by voluntary contributions amounting annually to $12.000, for support of students and officers and to meet current expenses.

4.—Its Instructors are all ministers of our church; Rev. I. N. RENDALL, D. D. is President. The Reverends E. R. Bower, C. R. Gregory, D. D., T. W. Cattell, G. T. Woodhull, C. C. Dickey and J. B. Rendall are Professors. Rev. W. R. Bingham, Oxford, Pa., is Treasurer of the Faculty.

5.—The Board of Trustees consists of 21 members, Ministers and Laymen; all men of the highest reputation in our church. Rev. W. R. BINGHAM is President, Rev. SAMUEL DICKEY is Treasurer.

6.—One Hundred Students have already suspended study for want of support, and now a greater evil is impending from the same cause—the disintegration of the machinery of instruction.

7.—CATALOGUES, CIRCULAR STATEMENTS, and full information will be gladly furnished, and contributions received by

Rev. EDWARD WEBB, Financial Secretary,

Oxford, Chester Co., Pa.
